Erin Mills Soccer Club 2022 Fall Indoor Youth Recreational Playing Stages

Stage I: Active Start (U3-U6)

Our goal for the players at this stage is to have basic movement skills, be comfortable with a ball, be more confident and try new challenges. It is important to us that the focus is on physical literacy, expanding on play, and social development. This program features 10 sessions and a medal at the end. It is mandatory to have a parent on the field with U3 & U4 and recommended to have a parent for U5 & U6.

Stage II: FUNdamentals (U7-U9)

At this stage, our focus is on developing the players' fundamental movement skills, concentrating on the ABC's; agility, balance, coordination, and speed. Players will have fun in a positive environment where they are able to enjoy being physically active. Players play in a 5v5 format facilitated by EMSC Volunteer Coaches. Games will be officiated by referees. Players will receive a medal at the end of the season.

Stage III: Learn to Train (U10-U12)

In this age group, identified as one of the 4 ages in the "Golden Age of Learning" development model, players will learn the basics of tactics, continue to build upon the technical base of their individual game with a heavy emphasis on game-based learning. Players play in a 5v5 format facilitated by EMSC Volunteer Coaches. Games will be officiated by referees. Players will receive a medal at the end of the season.

Stage IV: Train to Train (U13-U14)

At this stage of development, players are introduced to concepts like mental preparation, goal setting, coping with winning and losing, while learning more advanced soccer skills. Players play in a 5v5 format facilitated by EMSC Volunteer Coaches. Games will be officiated by referees. Players will receive a medal at the end of the season. Scores and standings will be recorded and the season includes playoffs.

Stage V: Train to Compete (U15-U18)

At this stage, players are working to refine their soccer skills under a variety of competitive conditions in a game format that mirrors adult play. Players will work to develop their tactical awareness, discipline and mental toughness. Players play in a 5v5 format facilitated by EMSC Volunteer Coaches. Games will be officiated by referees. Players will receive a medal at the end of the season. Scores and standings will be recorded and the season includes playoffs.
